

THEOLOGY ON TAP

Learning about the Catholic faith ... in a bar? Is this some kind of joke? No joke. It's Theology on Tap, a dynamic new speaker/discussion series for young adults who want to explore questions and issues of faith and theology. The setting for Theology on Tap — traditionally in a bar or restaurant — is relaxed and comfortable and aimed at young adults 21-40, single or married. Discussion topics examine ways in which our Catholic faith affect us, how it fits into our busy lifestyles, and how it helps us to understand God's influence in our lives.

So, if you're looking for answers, searching for direction, want to re-energize your faith — and have fun in the process, then Theology on Tap is for you!

Fr. David Hudgins, Pastor at St. Joseph, will be our first presenter on Tuesday, Sept. 21. The series discussion continues for the next 4 weeks.

6:30 pm: Gather at The Barley House, 113 E. Maumee St.; Get food and drinks
7:30 pm: Presentation (and maybe a joke or two) by Fr. David; Q & A follows
9:00 pm: Social time begins; relax, enjoy, discuss *Bring valid I.D. Attendees must be 21 or older.
